We are pleased to announce that Yokohama Triennale 2008: TIME CREVASSE has been inaugurated on Saturday, September 13th, 2008. On the day of inauguration, there was a total count of 13,000 people visiting the two main venues, Shinko Pier Exhibition Hall and NYK Waterfront Warehouse. Guests, press, art professionals or curators, and 37 international artists flew from all corners of the globe to attend this memorable event.

Events and performances held during opening weekend included those by guest artists such as Joan Jonas, Tony Conrad, Jorge Macchi & Edgardo Rudnitzky, Christian Holstad, Claude Wampler, and Teshigawara Saburo. In addition to the performance program scheduled in the main performance venue, Red Brick Warehouse No.1, many improvisational performances were held in the exhibition spaces by artists including Jonathan Meese, Ei Arakawa, Aki Sasamoto, and Jimmy Robert.

Performances and events will be held throughout the exhibition period (—November 30). Schedules are continuously updated on the official website. (<http://yokohamatriennale.jp/2008/en/event/calendar>)

“The Rule of the Game,” a statement by Yokohama Triennale 2008 curators, has been released on the official website. For all inquiries, please contact pr@yokohamatriennale.jp.
