Miwa YANAGI, the artist concerns with issues related to women such as gender, youth and aging through the photographic works and, most recently involved in theatre, finalized her work to be exhibited at Shinko Pier Exhibition Hall in collaboration with the Yokohama Triennale Supporters (Volunteers) and a team of 7 art students from Kyoto University of Art and Design, Tohoku University of Art and Design and Taipei National University of the Arts. The delicate and impressive design that features white wings spreading widely on the surface of the truck, is inspired by the Wings of the Sun, a novel written by Kenji NAKAGAMI and adopted to theatrical piece by YANAGI Miwa.

This stage truck will “travel” across Japan to stage the theatrical piece Wings of the Sun in celebration of the 70th anniversary of NAKAGAMI Kenji’s birth in 2015 and 2016, after the exhibition at “Yokohama Triennale 2014”.
